7. Accountability and Enforcement

Reporting: Community members and fellow officers are encouraged to report any perceived misuse of special powers or violations of this Code to any of the officers in Discord.

Consequences: Breaches of this Code may result in disciplinary action, ranging from a formal warning to suspension or removal from the officer role.

Review: If alleged allegations are made they may be investigated by crew and officers. The incident, reporting party, any evidence discovered, and actions taken by officers to rectify the situation will be documented, which will be accessible by the community. This is to ensure full transparency of staff and their interactions with the community.
